

A DISGUSTING OFFENSE.

The Case of William Henry and Mrs. Tallidge.

LENKE PLEADS GUILTY.

Affecting Scene Between the Defendant and His Wife.

Sentenced to One Year's Imprisonment for Stealing a Bicycle—Nelson's Case Continued Until Today—A Divorce Suit—Notes.

The nasty adultery case of William Henry and Mrs. Susan Tallidge came up in the Third district court yesterday morning.

Henry was tried first, and the hearing was held with closed doors, the facts being of a disgusting nature.

The crime was committed on the open street and was bestial in its detail. The jury, after a few minutes deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty against Henry.

Mr. Tallidge then, on the advice of her attorney, S. S. Markham, changed her plea of not guilty to that of guilty, and her counsel begged hard for mercy in her behalf, and stated that she was 45 years of age, the mother of nine children, and that her husband was a most respectable man and a local historian.

In reply to inquiries made by Judge Zane, Mrs. Tallidge expressed her intention to reform, whereupon his honor sentenced her to one month's imprisonment in the penitentiary. The male defendant, Henry, was then told to stand up, and his honor gave him a good lecture on the enormity of his offense, running around with an old woman 45 years of age, and the wife of another man at that. It was an aggravated case, and his honor sentenced him to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

A BICYCLE THIEF PLEADS GUILTY.

Henry H. Lemke, the man who stole a bicycle from Sam Park, took it to pieces and shipped it to Cheyenne, Wyo., was arraigned on the charge of grand larceny. He withdrew his former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty.

Attorney Hall, on behalf of the defendant, addressed the court and stated that there were certain painful circumstances connected with this case which had induced the prosecution to be satisfied with the lightest sentence for grand larceny being pronounced. The defendant last February had married a 17 year old girl who would become a mother in the course of a short time and would be left entirely without means of subsistence during her husband's imprisonment, and he was of the opinion that justice in this case should be tempered with mercy.

Assistant District Attorney Howat said that it was on account of the child-wife's position that he had consented to a light sentence being passed.

The defendant then stood up and stated to the court that he was 25 years of age, a bricklayer by trade and had been a resident of Salt Lake for about a year. He had been out of employment for some time and stole the bicycle to get money to support his wife.

His honor passed sentence of one year in the penitentiary, the lightest sentence the law allows for grand larceny.

AN AFFECTING SCENE.

After the sentence was pronounced an affecting scene between the prisoner and his young wife took place. The latter wept copiously and followed her husband to the deputy marshal's quarters, where they took a fond farewell of each other and Lemke was removed to the penitentiary.

CONTINUED.

The case of the People vs. John Rupp was continued by consent.

NELSON'S CASE GOES OVER.

The case against M. Marcellus Nelson, charged on three counts with embezzlement was called on and motion of the prosecution was allowed to go over until today.

A DIVORCE SUIT.

Ruth Smith Charges Her Husband with Cruel Treatment.

Ruth Smith has entered divorce proceedings in the Third district court against her husband Thomas G. Smith. The complaint sets forth that the parties were married at Salt Lake city on August 30, 1891, and that ever since September 1, 1891, the said defendant has wilfully, cruelly and without cause failed and neglected to provide plaintiff with the common necessities of life although at all times being sufficiently able to do so and that on December 1, 1892, the defendant wilfully deserted and abandoned said plaintiff, and is now living in Portland, Or., and that when he departed he took with him a considerable sum of the plaintiff's earnings. Wherefore she prays for a decree of divorce and that she be restored to her maiden name of Ruth Hall.

FROM PARIS, IDAHO.

A Drug Store and a Meat Market Burglarized Yesterday.

PARIS, Idaho, Sept. 21, 1893.—The Paris drug store, owned by Orson Pendrey and Arthur Budget's meat market, was broken into between 10 o'clock last night and daylight this morning. An entrance was gained to the drug store by removing a square of glass from the side window and some goods were carried off. The front door of the meat market was unlocked, and about $5 in cash, and a small amount of scrip taken from the money drawer. They then broke through the partition door and made their exit through the back window.

The district court is in session and if the thieves are caught they will be severely dealt with.

A September Wedding Solemnized at Hammond Hall Last Evening.

The marriage of Miss Mary C. Engstrom and Joseph R. Madsen took place at Hammond hall last evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Emil Skabo officiating. Mr. Shugen presided at the piano and played a number of Swedish airs. The bride party entered to the inspiring strains of the wedding march by Soderstrom. The groom and his best man, G. Then came the four bridesmaids, Misses Julia Iverson, Edith Engstrom, Lena Michaelson and Mrs. Madsen, and last the bride leaning on the arm of her father.

The bridesmaids wore simple but pretty dresses of white albatross and carried pink and white roses.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's father, J. P. Engstrom, 322 South Ninth East. The reception was a pleasant affair and enjoyed in an informal fashion. Miss Hannah Halvorsen contributed to the pleasure of guests by rendering several vocal solos. ## A Reform School Candidate.

City Marshal Storrs brought over from Springfield this morning Adelbert Leah, a 10-year candidate for the reform school, held by Justice Bover. The boy last Sunday broke into Bert Miner's house of that city and stole some clothing. He is the young Arab of Springfield, and delights more to sleep in outhouses and barns than at home. His destructive faculties are largely developed. Not long ago he took a live cat and chopped it up limb at a time. Adelbert is small of his age, and it appears quite amusing to hear his familiarity with the marshal, whom he calls George. His parents have given the boy up as incorrigible.—Provo Dispatch.

Accident at Monroe.

We hear that a 5-year-old son of Hyrum Washburn of Monroe, was thrown from a horse and severely hurt, last week, the skull being fractured and the brain protruding. A doctor was called, and the brain matter returned, but it continued to ooze out. His condition is critical. We also hear of a runaway in that town but did not get the particulars.—Richfield Advocate.

Territorial Items.

Father George Noakes, a well known resident of Charleston, Wasatch county, died a few days ago.

The town board of Heber has posted an ordinance which reduces the liquor license from $200 to $150 per quarter.

John J. Ashby of Aurora, was thrown from a horse last Thursday morning, and was badly injured. Grave doubts of his recovery are entertained.—Richfield Advocate.

Ed Sparks, jr., was the object of a painful accident Tuesday. While unloading hay in the barn, a pole fell and struck his right eye, badly bruising the same, but no serious results are apprehended.—Nephi Courier.

About 12 o'clock last night Jonathan Sharp, sr., better known as Grandpa Sharp, died at the residence of his son in this city. He was almost 88 years of age and has been a resident of this place for over twenty-five years.—Wasatch Week.

Mr. Walter Baker of Richfield has just returned from a trip to Rabbit Valley, where he has been to purchase a lot of beef stock, which he intends to slaughter and put on the market at their old stand. He reports beef cattle in very fine condition this season.—Richfield Advocate.

Good times are certainly in store for Nephi. Judge Smith informs us that the May term of District court is to be held here and it will last from two and a half to three months. The entire criminal calendar will be called here next May.—Nephi Courier.

Deputy United States Marshal Mount was in town the first part of the week. He left Thursday afternoon for Ephraim. The people there are expecting trouble when the Sanpete Valley employees attempt to cross the line of the Rio Grande Western, and Mount has been sent there by Marshal Brigham to protect lives and property.—Nephi Courier.

Sheriff Brown went to Lehi yesterday afternoon and arrested six tramps for breaking into the Co-op store at that place and stealing clothing and other articles. Two of them were those arrested here in Provo last Saturday as counterfeiters and turned loose again. They are having a preliminary hearing today before the precinct justice of Lehi.—Provo Dispatch.

The frame work of the belfry of the new district school house was blown off from its bearings and on to the roof by a gust of wind Saturday afternoon. It had been but temporarily fastened down, waiting for the tin work to be put on and some other items attended to. Tuesday the business was all in place again, and the carpenters busy putting it down. It should judge the whole roof will be on by next Wednesday.—Richfield Advocate.

Mr. McDaniel and Mr. Probert did a little prospecting on the Indian mound just west of the corner of Erie. They found several samples of pottery, some arrow spikes, charred corn and corn cobs and other things. A great many articles have been picked up around this old mound. The samples of pottery were very varied, white glaze of different colors, and surpassing any pottery made in Utah by Anglo-Saxons.—Richfield Advocate.

There was a quiet wedding at the residence of Edward Byers Thursday evening. T. H. Giles performed the ceremony which joined in wedlock Edward Shelton and Miss Amanda Byers. There were only a few of the relatives present, but all had a splendid time. The newly married couple were as happy as clams. Mrs. Shelton was unable to be present at her son's marriage on account of the sickness of her mother at Provo, where she was called the first of the week.—Wasatch Week.

John Morehouse, aged 14 years, and a son of Uncle John Morehouse of this city, met with very serious wound yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, while riding horseback down to the ranch with Alphonzo Henrick. He handed the latter a Colt's 41-calibre revolver. Alphonzo dropped the weapon, which struck John's knee and exploded, penetrating and shattering the ankle bone. Dr. Mier is attending the wounded member, amputation will no doubt be necessary.—Nephi Courier.

Tuesday last week Chas. Skougard while working on the new school house in course of erection, fell a distance of eight feet, on his back across the sleepers of the upper story. He was very badly hurt, and on examination said his spine had been injured, but that he would be all right by Saturday. Mr. Skougard was on the street Sunday and Monday with his best girl, who came over from Scipio to see him in his trouble.—Richfield Advocate.
